

Pre-visit Activity Year 1

There are two buildings at Atherton Chinatown. They are the Hou Wang Temple and the Old Post Office Building.

Place 1 under the Old Post Office building.

Place 2 under the Hou Wang Temple.

The Old Post Office building has an entry at the end of the wooden walkway.

To the left of the entry is the museum for the Chinatown site.

To the right is an art gallery.

Draw arrows from the underlined words to the parts of the Old Post Office building.

The Old Post Office building was built in 1907 and the temple was built 4 years earlier in _____.

The temple building has a number of parts to it. Here is a list of its parts. Number them.

Pagoda___

Kitchen___

Temple___

Storage Room___

Caretaker's Room___

.....

Meeting Hall___

There are___ parts.

When you walk from the Old Post Office building towards the Temple, you will walk along Fong On Road which was the only street at Atherton Chinatown.

Along this road, there are eight plinths upon which various sculptures have been placed. Each sculpture has a special meaning and has been situated in its place for a particular reason.

Can you recognise this flower?

It is a _____.

Do you have a special or favourite flower? Circle your answer – Yes / No

If you have circled “Yes”, what is the name of your flower?

It is a _____.

Does it have a special meaning for you? - Yes/No

Would you like to tell your classmates what its special meaning is?

