Dr Mildred Mocatta Award Nomination Form

Since its inception in 1955, the National Trust of South Australia has been one of the State's leading conservation organisations. This is thanks primarily to the continual work by its dedicated community of volunteers.

Purpose

The purpose of the Dr Mildred Mocatta Award is to acknowledge exceptional contribution through voluntary work on behalf of the National Trust of South Australia. This contribution may have been made individually or through the work of a Branch, Committee, Council or the Head Office.

Eligibility

A nomination may be made by a financial member of the National Trust (the Nominator).

The Nominator will need to demonstrate that the Nominee has demonstrated exceptional achievement in an innovative National Trust project or activity. There is no specific period of service required to be eligible for nomination for the Dr Mildred Mocatta award, and is awarded for one year only.

Examples of projects and activities which can be considered may include:

Initiating a heritage tourism project, managing a successful membership drive or fundraising program; establishing an oral history project; establishing educational programs for children or for seniors, re-designing a museum space.

Nomination For An Award

Provide all necessary information concerning the Nominee as requested on the attached nomination form.

The names and contact details are to be provided for two additional financial National Trust members who support the application.

Assessment Of The Nomination

The nomination will be assessed by the Council of the National Trust. If the application is successful, the Nominator and the Nominee will be notified. If the application is not successful, only the Nominator will be notified.
